Welcome to eBay!

Hi Lucy Nguyen,

Thanks for creating your new eBay account. You can start browsing, bidding and buying today - but before you do, we'd like to share a few tips to help you personalize and get the most out of your account.

Your eBay user ID is luc.nguy

Your user ID is shown when you bid, buy, and sell on eBay. It will also be displayed when you contact other eBay members, leave feedback, and write product reviews.

Want to change your eBay user ID?

It's easy! Just go to your account preferences in My eBay to pick your own user ID.

Sign up for PayPal, or link your existing account

Shopping on eBay is faster and easier when you pay with PayPal - the more secure way to send and receive money. PayPal securely stores your bank, credit or debit card details, so you don't have to type them in each time you buy - and you never have to share them with sellers. Start a free PayPal account today using your eBay information.
